RATIONING PLAN ACCEPTED BY HUN; TURN OVER SHIPS

Conference Arranges To Send 370,000 Tons of Food Monthly

GERMAN-OWNED SECURITIES WILL PAY FOR SHIPMENTS

Wiley Teuton Didn't Get All Food He Wanted From the Allies

(Associated Press Telegram) Brussels, Friday, March 14.—The German delegates to the conference here regarding the taking over by the allies of the German mercantile fleet and the provisioning of Germany today definitely accepted the conditions imposed by the allies.

A monthly ration for Germany of 370,000 tons of foodstuffs was fixed Thursday by the allied commission, which is in this city conferring with a German delegation as to the turning over of German merchant shipping and German-owned securities in payment for food shipments. The Germans observed that this ration was smaller than they had requested and were pessimistic as to the arrangement of satisfactory financial terms.

After Vice Admiral Roslyn Weymss of Great Britain, chairman of the allied delegation, had presented the conditions decided upon by the entente, the Germans asked to be allowed to withdraw for consultation. They then formed three sub-commissions to deal with questions of finance, food supply and mercantile marine. This evening at 6 o'clock another plenary session was held. Vice Admiral Weymss saying at its close that satisfactory progress was being made.

In the evening the Germans asked to be given the use of a telegraph line to Weimar.

NEED FOOD QUICKLY HUN MINISTER SAYS

(Associated Press Telegram) Berlin, Tuesday, March 11.—Germany expects that the allies will provide food supplies until August 15, which is the earliest possible date that flour from this year's harvest can be counted upon, said Under Secretary of State von Braun today, before leaving for Brussels, where he will take part in negotiations with allied commission relative to food shipments and the turning over of German shipping for the use of the entente nations.

Herr von Braun said Germany would ask for 1,400,000 tons of grain and a monthly importation of 100,000 tons of pork and fat, in addition to condensed milk, rice, oatmeal, other commodities required particularly for invalids, infants and hospitals.

He estimated the cost of these shipments at five billion marks. "It is a matter of great importance, he said, that food should arrive at the earliest possible moment and that the total amount to be provided be known, so that the government could adjust rations until the next harvest."

Only under these conditions is it possible to combat Bolshevism and bring the German people back to sane conditions of life, and political and industrial sobriety," he said.

CITIES GET CHANCE TO TAKE OVER JOB BUREAUS

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, March 15.—Mayors of 35 Ohio cities where federal employment offices are located were given the opportunity to take over a greater share of the support of these offices after March 22, by Fred C. Croxton, federal employment director for Ohio today.

Effective March 22 federal support of these offices will be reduced 50 percent, by reason of the failure of congress to appropriate funds for the employment service.

While the offices in the seven larger cities of the state, now partly supported by the state, will be continued, Croxton said it would be necessary to make some reduction in these offices.

CONSUMERS COMPANY REORGANIZES FOR MANUFACTURE OF SOFT DRINKS

Plans Now Being Carried Out Will Make Local Plant One of Largest In Ohio—Will Specialize In Popular Southern Drink.

On May 24 the Consumers Brewing company of this city will deliver the last of its product and after that date will be known as The Consumers Producing company, and will engage in the manufacture of various soft drinks, including thousands of dollars worth of new machinery, and will have one of the largest and best equipped plants in the country, employing a number of men and will bid for trade all over Ohio, retaining traveling salesmen on the road for that purpose.

The present official force will be retained according to a statement of General Manager Henry Schmidt today. A new beer will be manufactured and which will be called Consumers special. In addition the famous "Whistle," an orange drink popular in the southern states, will be marketed, the new company having received the rights for its manufacture and marketing. The company will also manufacture ginger ale and root beer and later expect to equip a part of the plant for the manufacture of a complete line of sodas.

An automatic bottle and capping machine has been purchased which is said to be capable of handling thousands of bottles per day, which will be necessary for the business which the company expects to handle. After the machinery is installed the public will be given an invitation to inspect the plant in operation.

Mr. Schmidt says it is the desire of the company to take care of its Newark patrons before closing the plant on May 24, and that orders for the city should be in by May 1st. His points out the fact that the law explicitly state that no deliveries shall be made after Saturday, March 24. The Consumers plant will be ready for the soft drink business just as soon as Ohio goes "dry" on May 27th.

MILLIONS POUR IN FOR INCOME TAX

Expect Receipts Today to Reach Total of Nearly One Billion Dollars.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, March 15.—Millions of dollars poured into the offices of collectors of internal revenue today as persons and business firms filed their income or profits tax returns and paid the first 25 per cent installment of tax. By the time the collector's office closes tonight it was estimated that four million persons and firms would have filed returns and the total tax paid would amount to from $800,000,000 to $1,000,000,000.

Persons or firms failing to file returns are liable to a penalty of not more than $100, and in addition, 25 per cent of the amount of tax due. Payments made by mail bearing the postmark of today will be considered as having met the time requirement, however, even though not received by the collectors today.

Practically all of the tax paid in as the first installment will be used immediately by the treasury to redeem certificates of indebtedness issued last November in anticipation of today's tax collections. This use of the taxes paid, officials believe, will do much to prevent shifting of bank funds and disturbance of business.

BRITISH EXTEND LINES IN GERMAN TERRITORY

(Associated Press Telegram) London, March 15.—Acute unrest prevails in the whole Westphalian industrial region and it probably will be necessary to extend the British bridgehead in that direction, says a dispatch to the Mail from its correspondent with the British army.

The German province of Westphalia is one of the most important industrial districts in Europe, it has one of the richest coalfields in the world, and the iron industry there has been developed on a vast scale. The British bridgehead, east of the Rhine, is semicircular in shape, extending about Cologne, the radius of the circle being approximately 18 miles. It does not reach the line between the Rhine province and Westphalia at present.

MAY YET PUNISH MEN WHO PLANNED BLOODY CONFLICT

Commission Suggests Special Machinery May Deal With Guilty

URGES THAT RANK NOT INFLUENCE WITH JUSTICE

Would Punish Those Who Violated Customs of War

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, March 14.—A sub-commission of the commission on responsibility for the war reported today that strictly and technically, criminal prosecutions of those who brought about the struggle were "anomalous and unnecessary," according to an official communique issued this evening. The report added, however, that the peace conference "might adopt special measures and even create special machinery to deal with those who planned the war."

The sub-commission received evidence which clearly analyzed the facts relative to the origin of the conflict, it was stated.

Another sub-commission which had dealt with violations of the laws and customs of war has also submitted its report and proposed that the powers should establish a high tribunal which "should not in the exercise of its criminal jurisdiction, be blocked by considerations of rank."

The commission, it was announced, is considering these reports. The British program at the peace conference is understood to contemplate the signing of separate preliminary treaties with the central allies as soon as possible after Germany is disposed of. Next will be the consideration of any amendments to the present constitution of the League of Nations, and then the league would be whipped into permanent shape. The final peace treaty would follow and would include the League of Nations plan.

The leading thought among the British at the present moment seems to be to strip the preliminary peace terms of all neutrality imbecilities and to secure a document which would settle the world can begin to settle back to normal.

One of the first questions to be considered by the council of ten with President Wilson participating in the discussion will be the boundary between Poland and Germany. The Polish boundary commission, as well as the general territorial commission has virtually agreed unanimously on this boundary.

While no other official announcement has been made, it is known that Danzig is included in Poland and that the commissioners have agreed upon a boundary which would give Poland strategic points which should make her an effective barrier between Bolshevism and western Europe.

ENGLAND, FRANCE AND ITALY DEFEND TREATIES

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, March 15.—It has been learned that the status of secret treaties and conventions made during the war again has arisen. Information obtained today from some of the American delegates to the peace conference was to the effect that the action of a majority of the commission dealing with the subject of Grecian boundaries, in declaring that the treaty of London of 1915 was effective, will not be permitted to go unchallenged and could not become effective unless ratified by the council of ten, which they asserted would refuse its approval. The subject matter on the occasion of the commission is not of special interest to Americans, but the decision relative to the treaty of London, which is one of those conventions made during the war, is regarded as of the gravest importance, it being declared to be in direct conflict with one of President Wilson's 14 points concerning such agreements and one relative to the right of self-determination of small nations.

It is held that if the decision of the majority of the commission were upheld it would of necessity carry with it affirmation of Italy's claims to nearly all the eastern shore of the Adriatic, as well as of other agreements for the disposition of colonial possessions which have been regarded as proper subject for action of the supreme council and the peace conference itself.

A point of especial interest is that the action was taken by the commission through a combination of votes of Great Britain and Italy.

WILL OPERATE BOATS UNDER ARMED GUARD

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, March 15.—In an effort to break the strike of the harbor tugboat association today planned to place boats in operation with strike breakers, under strong guard. A recruiting office has been opened for non-union workers and it was said that 200 discharged sailors and soldiers have been hired.

Another appeal has been made by the owners to police Commissioner Knickerbocker for police protection, while T. L. Dalahanty, president of the marine workers' affiliation, has called the commission's attention to the orderly way in which the strike has been conducted and has asked that the union pickets be protected against "armed thugs."

Mr. Dalahanty claims that 14 private boat owners have broken from the ranks of the New York Boat Owners' association and agreed to follow the situation of the railroad administration and other federal agencies and grant the demands of the union. Officers of the Owners' association deny Mr. Dalahanty's statement.

SOLDIER ABROAD AIDS ALMA MATER

Sends Half of His Pay Monthly to Denison University to Promote Its Work.

(Special to The Advocate.)
Granville, March 15.—An editorial article in the Denisonian calls attention to the beautiful example of appreciation to his Alma Mater as shown by Morris Finch, who regularly sent one-half his soldier's pay from overseas to Denison to promote her work and it calls upon the "Christian men of a Christian school to give unselfish support to the college and to those who have shown themselves willing to sacrifice their all to the emancipation of humanity and the cause of democracy." Briefly, there is a movement on foot to enlist the co-operation of all S. A. T. C. men to establish one or more scholarships at Denison which may enable some former S. A. T. C. men to return to Denison who could not otherwise come. The plan has the endorsement of the faculty and of several students, and opportunity will be given next Tuesday during chapel for an expression of the will of the S. A. T. C. men. The meeting will be held in the Denisonian building and a thorough cooperation on the part of everybody will insure the success of this practical suggestion. Mrs. Sarah Myers opened her home in West Elm street, Friday afternoon, March 14, for the regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. The attendance was unusually large and the program was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Following the devotional service and the disposal of a few items of business by the president, Mrs. John McClain, the pleasingly varied program was opened by Miss Abbie Davis with three readings, "The Face on the Floor," "St. Patrick's Birthday," and "Irish Names," all received with hearty applause. Discussion of many interesting views of Irish scenes, collected by Mrs. Lucy Van Kirk on her visit to that country, and the recital of several items about St. Patrick followed. Mrs. J. V. Wood then presented the chief topic of the afternoon, "Literature," a well prepared paper by a brief review of "What the Saloons and Breweries Are Being Turned Into"—some into hospitals, some into meat packing establishments, some into drug stores, and so on. The meeting closed with a delightful hour during which Mrs. Myers served coffee and cakes.

Zero weather ought never to bother a battery. It won't either, unless you forget, and let the charge run too low.

Charge keeps any battery out of the frost danger zone, and the more charge the better until you come up to the 1.285 mark. Then you'll be protected against anything down to 20 below.

The main thing is to take a hydrometer test every week, to make sure that your charge is up to what it should be. If in doubt, ask us.

APPRAISAL WILL BE MADE IN APRIL

County Auditor Will Have One Appraiser in Each Township and Village.

County Auditor Fred S. Wilson is making splendid progress in his plan of reappraisal of real estate of the county and is meeting with the hearty co-operation of some of the county's best citizens.

Auditor Wilson said today that after an inquiry and inspection of values had been made it was discovered that there were many inequalities which should be remedied. Under the present statutes no values can be changed without a revaluation of the whole.

The plans for the reappraisal have been completed and it will be done next month. There will be one appraiser for each township and one for each incorporated village, and two appraisers for each ward in this city. In each appraising district there will be appointed an advisory board of three which will be non-partisan and whose duties will be to review the work of the appraisers and make such equalizations as are necessary, so that all values will be placed upon an equal basis.

The auditor further stated that in order to maintain the Smith law property must be appraised at its true value in money, and that all townships, villages and wards should be so appraised that all property-owners in the county pay their just proportion of tax. He said that he was calling upon representative men of the county to aid in the work without pay, that the property-owners' interests might be guarded and that any error in value by the appraisers might be corrected by men situated in different parts of the district and who have a knowledge of values in their particular vicinity.

WILL INSTALL BISHOP BY SPECIAL PERMIT

Associated Press Telegram—New York, March 15.—A special dispensation has been received from the pope to install the Most Reverend Patrick Joseph Hayes, as archbishop of New York at St. Patrick's cathedral in Fifth avenue next Wednesday afternoon, it was announced today. The dispensation allows the installation to proceed without the arrival of the bulls from the Vatican and the pope, the sign of the archbishops' office. These are not expected to arrive until after Easter.

The ceremony of installation will be simple because of the Lenten season. Archbishop Donato of Washington, the apostolic delegate to the United States will preside at the ceremony.

"Yes," said the returned soldier proudly, "I was in the artillery, as was my father before me." A regular son of a gun, eh?" said the admiring friend.

A LETTER TO OHIO FARMERS

Farmers everywhere are becoming more and more interested in the Federal Farm Loan system because they realize that it gives the best kind of farm loan. Instead of making loans for one or two years, the Federal Farm Loan act provides for long-time loans that are repaid in small semi-annual installments. Thus the worries and uncertainties of frequent renewals are done away with.

The Federal Farm Loan act provides for the establishment of Land Banks all over the country in addition to the business of making these farm loans. I represent one of these—the Virginian Joint Stock Land Bank—and if you want a loan I want to hear from you. Under our plan it is not necessary to join an association, nor buy stock, because loans are made direct to farmers.

I will be in Newark at the Arcade Hotel, on Tuesday, March 18, for the purpose of meeting farmers and accepting applications. If you cannot come in at this time, write me for further information. DONALD R. ACKLIN, Perryburg, O.

SOLDIER ABROAD AIDS ALMA MATER

Sends Half of His Pay Monthly to Denison University to Promote Its Work.

(Special to The Advocate.)
Granville, March 15.—An editorial article in the Denisonian calls attention to the beautiful example of appreciation to his Alma Mater as shown by Morris Finch, who regularly sent one-half his soldier's pay from overseas to Denison to promote her work and it calls upon the "Christian men of a Christian school to give unselfish support to the college and to those who have shown themselves willing to sacrifice their all to the emancipation of humanity and the cause of democracy." Briefly, there is a movement on foot to enlist the co-operation of all S. A. T. C. men to establish one or more scholarships at Denison which may enable some former S. A. T. C. men to return to Denison who could not otherwise come. The plan has the endorsement of the faculty and of several students, and opportunity will be given next Tuesday during chapel for an expression of the will of the S. A. T. C. men. Pledge cards will be distributed and a thorough cooperation on the part of everybody will insure the success of this practical suggestion.

Mrs. Sarah Finch and her son, Morris, of West Elm street, Friday afternoon, March 14, for the regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. The attendance was unusually large and the program was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Following the devotional service and the disposal of a few items of business by the president, Mrs. John McClain, the pleasingly varied program was opened by Miss Abbie Davis with three readings: "The Face on the Floor," "St. Patrick's Birthday," and "Irish Names," all received with hearty applause. Discussion of many interesting views of Irish scenes, collected by Mrs. Lucy Van Kirk on her visit to that country, and the recital of several items about St. Patrick followed. Mrs. J. V. Wood then presented the chief topic of the afternoon, "Literature," in a well prepared paper by a brief review of "What the Soldiers and Sailors Are Being Turned Into"—some into hospitals, some into meat packing establishments, some into drug stores, and so on. The meeting closed with a delightful hour during which Mrs. Myers served coffee and cakes.

The regular meeting of the Granville Mothers' club will be held next Monday evening, March 17, at the home of Mrs. E. C. Roberts in East Broadway. Instead of with Mrs. Eschman, as announced. An interesting program has been arranged and all members will be cordially welcome.

The date for the annual presentation of the Y. M. C. A. circus, which for several years has taken the place of the Denison Dandy Parkies as the great historic event of the college year, has been moved forward to the evening of April 11th, in the Granville opera house. The proceeds this year will benefit the Y. M. C. A. exclusively.

Mrs. Milo Price of Owatonna, Minn., who has been the guest of Granville relatives during the past week, left Friday evening for the return trip to her home.

The Masquers Dramatic society will hold its annual tryouts Monday and Tuesday, March 17 and 18, in the public speaking recitation room between the hours of 3:30 and 8:30. This society is receiving much of the attention of Denison and presents only the best dramatic works. No previous training or experience is requisite for membership in the club.

Lenten service was held in St. Luke's church Friday afternoon at 3:30.

It is stated on good authority that every method of transportation in demand today for the trip to Delaware, autos, jitneys, busses, side door Pullmans, all have been engaged. "Even the walking may be crowded."

Cecil B. De Mille will present Elliot Dexter and all-star cast in "Old Wives for New" at the Opera House tonight. On Monday, March 17, Charles Ray, the popular Paramount star, will be seen in "The Claws of the Hun," which shows how "he started a war of his own at home when he found they wouldn't let him go to France"—a play full of dramatic action and splendid patriotism.

WHEN OPPRESSED HUNGARY PROCLAIMED ITSELF A REPUBLIC

Auto load of revolutionists dashing through street celebrating formation of republic and crowds listening to President Karolyi, at right on steps.

The fact that no word has been received recently concerning any trouble in the newly formed republic of Hungary would indicate that the new nation is working out its future satisfactorily to most of the people. The pictures above, which have just arrived in the United States, were taken during the formation of the republic. The lower photo shows how the revolutionists, in their delight over the overturning of the old monarchial regime, commandeered autos and every other kind of vehicle to celebrate the coming of democracy.

PERSHING TALKS TO DOUGHBOYS

Commander-In-Chief Inspects Division In Army of Occupation and Presents Decorations.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Coblenz, Friday, March 14.—General John J. Pershing, who is inspecting the fighting divisions of the American army of occupation had his first sight this morning of American troops in combat formation on German soil. One six hundred men plateau on the east bank of the Rhine overlooking Coblenz and the winding river, he inspected the second division and presented more than eighty decorations. He later reviewed the division, which passed before him in massed formation, the marching time of the four thousand men being about twenty minutes.

Mounted on a dappled grey cavalry horse, which was presented Brigadier General John L. Hines, commander of the third army corps by the British mission, General Pershing inspected the supply trains, ammunition units and motorized artillery and then passed on to infantry.

The commander-in-chief in this part of the program, walked along the lines of soldiers, devoting more than an hour to the work. He questioned company commanders as to their quarters and in reference to conditions generally, he talked to scores of doughboys who wore wound stripes, inquiring if they had fully recovered and asking others if they wanted to go home. Without exception, they were eager to return to America as soon as possible for family and business reasons, but all were perfectly willing, they said, to serve as long as it is necessary to the United States to keep an army in Europe.

At the head of the line of those receiving decorations and for the moment outranking two generals, was Sergeant Louis Van Israel, of Newark, N. J., whose mother is living in Holland. He was given the congressional medal of honor.

During the battle of the Argonne, he crossed the Meuse, fell into a German trap, escaped and again crossed the river with valuable information as to the enemy's forces.

Major General John A. LeJume, commander of the Second division, was given the distinguished service medal and received the insignia of commander of the French legion of honor. Brigadier General W. C. Neville, commander of the Marine brigade at Belleau Wood was decorated with the distinguished service medal. Seventy-eight soldiers received distinguished service crosses.

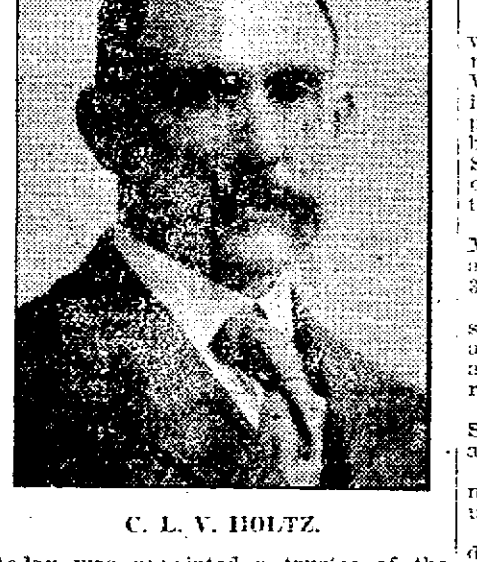

As a surprise General Pershing brought with him a congressional medal of honor for Private John J. Kelly, of Chicago, Sixth Marines, as a reward for attacking a machine gun nest on Hane Mort ridge, in the Champagne. Kelly, however, was on out post duty and was unable to be present.

This afternoon General Pershing inspected and reviewed the first division, which he helped to organize in Washington for service in France. The review took place at Montauban, the headquarters of the first division and, in addition to visiting the troops, the commander-in-chief presented a number of decorations, among them being a distinguished service cross for Brigadier General J. D. MacLachlan, the commander of the division.

Zero weather ought never to bother a battery.

It won't either, unless you forget, and let the charge run too low.

Charge keeps any battery out of the frost danger zone, and the more charge the better until you come up to the 1.285 mark. Then you'll be protected against anything down to 20 below.

The main thing is to take a hydrometer test every week, to make sure that your charge is up to what it should be. If in doubt, ask us.

APPRAISAL WILL BE MADE IN APRIL

County Auditor Will Have One Appraiser in Each Township and Village.

County Auditor Fred S. Wilson is making splendid progress in his plan of reappraisal of real estate of the county and is meeting with the hearty co-operation of some of the county's best citizens.

Auditor Wilson said today that after an inquiry and inspection of values had been made it was discovered that there were many inequalities which should be remedied. Under the present statutes no values can be changed without a revaluation of the whole.

The plans for the reappraisal have been completed and it will be done next month. There will be one appraiser for each township and one for each incorporated village, and two appraisers for each ward in this city. In each appraising district there will be appointed an advisory board of three which will be non-partisan and whose duties will be to review the work of the appraisers and make such equalizations as are necessary, so that all values will be placed upon an equal basis.

The auditor further stated that in order to maintain the Smith law property must be appraised at its true value in money, and that all townships, villages and wards should be so appraised that all property-owners in the county pay their just proportion of tax. He said that he was calling upon representative men of the county to aid in the work without pay, that the property-owners' interests might be guarded and that any error in value by the appraisers might be corrected by men situated in different parts of the district and who have a knowledge of values in their particular vicinity.

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
New York, March 15.—A special dispensation has been received from the pope to install the Most Reverend Patrick Joseph Hayes, as archbishop of New York at St. Patrick's cathedral in Fifth avenue next Wednesday afternoon, it was announced today. The dispensation allows the installation to proceed without the arrival of the bulls from the Vatican and the pallium, the sign of the archbishops' office. These are not expected to arrive until after Easter.

The ceremony of installation will be simple because of the Lenten season. Archbishop Donzoni of Washington, the apostolic delegate to the United States will preside at the ceremony.

"Yes," said the returned soldier proudly, "I was in the artillery, as was my father before me." A regular son of a gun, eh?" said the admiring friend.

COLORED MEN DEBATE SUFFRAGE QUESTION

The A. M. E. church, East Church street, was crowded last evening to hear the debate between two teams chosen from the men of the congregation. The question debated was: "Resolved, That Suffrage Should Be Extended to Women."

Those on the affirmative teams were: Aaron Mitchell, captain; Arthur Birmingham, Carl Guy and Charles Coleman, while Carl Blackwell, as captain; Earl Rosen, Harry Toney and Henry Coleman, composed the negative team. The judges were: Charles D. Lake, Harry Dolman and Henry Brown.

After the rebuttal the judges retired and shortly after announced that they had found unanimously in favor of the negative. The debate was interesting throughout, and all speakers were applauded and a neat sum of money was added to the church treasury.

A LETTER TO OHIO FARMERS

Farmers everywhere are becoming more and more interested in the Federal Farm Loan system because they realize that it gives the best kind of farm loan. Instead of making loans for one or two years, the Federal Farm Loan act provides for long-time loans that are repaid in small semi-annual installments. Thus the worries and uncertainties of frequent renewals are done away with.

The Federal Farm Loan act provides for the establishment of Land Banks all over the country to attend to the business of making these farm loans. I represent one of these—the Virginia Joint Stock Land bank—and if you want a loan I want to hear from you. Under our plan it is not necessary to join an association, nor buy any stock, because loans are made direct to farmers.

I will be in Newark at the Arcade Hotel, on Tuesday, March 18, for the purpose of meeting farmers and accepting applications. If you cannot come in at this time, write me for further information. DONALD R. ACKLIN, Perrysburg, O.

BEATING PRICES DOWN.

A speaker from Seattle, Wash., suggested at the recent conference of governors and mayors at Washington, D. C., that the mayors of cities make an effort to reduce the prices of necessities of life. He suggested that they call in their home merchants and ask them to take steps to get prices reduced all around.
This is something along the line of a movement started recently by the Flint, Mich., Board of Commerce. They called together 550 retailers of that city, and got them to agree to reduce prices. As a result some of them must have done business at a loss. But they reported an increased trade, which they feel will help develop a broader business for the future.
It is a question of whether retail merchants should be asked to take such a step before producers and wholesalers reduce prices. Retail trade is being conducted on a narrow margin of profit, closer than ever before.

At least the retail trade should make a determined effort to reduce prices. Merchants should give customers to understand that the present high prices produce suffering and tend to upset business. Producers and wholesalers would much rather be content with small profits, rather than bring on a business depression.

The wholesale trade frequently gets the idea that it practically owns a certain set of retail dealers, and that these men will buy certain lines regardless of whether prices asked are right or not. It would pay the retailer to show independence, and induce the wholesale salesman that their goods must make every effort to bring prices down if they wish to keep trade. A determined show of resistance by the retail merchants to the present level of prices ought to have some effect toward breaking it.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

For many years the business community has suffered from periods of depression. The most characteristic feature of these periods was the great number of people who were out of work. It seemed a hideous anomaly that hundreds of thousands who ardently desired work, could find nothing to do. It was a break down in the existing social and economical machinery.
These periods of depression and unemployment used sometimes to drag along four or five years. People could not find work until there was a good demand for merchandise. And they could not buy merchandise until they had work. It was a vicious circle of idleness and starvation.
The experiences of the war have demonstrated that it is not always necessary to spend millions in public projects to find work for the unemployed. Under ordinary conditions there are as many employers seeking help as there are workers seeking jobs. But they may live a long distance apart, and they don't find each other. Hence, unemployment, and all its miseries and dangers.

The recently organized United States employment service has found work for millions of men. That greatly increased the fighting power of the United States. But it also succeeded in carrying the country through a big part of the readjustment period without disaster.

There has been suggestions that the appropriation for this national employment service might be discontinued. It would be a very serious mistake. This service should be made a permanent bureau. It will prevent industrial depression from starting. Every time you put an idle man to work, you stop a center of social unrest and possible Bolshevism. The work of the employment service is a triumph of American efficiency.

THE TAXATION PROBLEM.

The American people are eagerly looking to see a reduction of the cost of running the government. But it is not going to be any easy thing to get back to the old rates of taxation. The United States government has a great war debt. There will be a demand for better military preparation. The producers of this country need direct shipping connection with the continents where they are selling their goods. As the cost of living goes up, it will be necessary to pay higher salaries to government employees.

Parallel conditions prevail in the local and state governments. Already vast sums have been appropriated for good roads. The farmers not reached by any hard road will demand their share.

There is an insistent demand for better schools. The people are not going to be satisfied to see their young people quit their studies at 14 and 16 years of age, beginning life only half trained for citizenship and industry. The people will want technical schools for better mechanical training and agricultural work. Every department of municipal, state and national government will cost more.

All this means much higher taxes, unless public work is brought to a basis of business efficiency. The people will not tolerate expenditures for fads and fancies and frills. But they do want solid results that are now being secured. They will insist that the politicians cut out partisanship, favoritism and machine methods and gum shoe stuff.

If a politician is not qualified to help run government like a successful business enterprise, it is time for him to get out. What is wanted is not smooth talkers who can make black look like white. Less talk and more business should be the motto of the hour.

Congress has decided to stick by the seniority rule in making committee chairmen, but the younger members will occasionally be permitted to move to adjourn if they are very respectful.

Probably the greater force in this country working against Bolshevism is not the learned economic arguments of the professors, but the prospective opening of the baseball season.

The Russian Bolsheviks kill people incurably sick with typhoid fever, but they carefully refrain from doing anything to the mentally incurable.

In one respect a Bolshevik government would be economical, as not much money would have to be spent for water supplies for any purpose.

It is claimed the soldiers don't want to keep their uniforms, but they should remember what a tremendous help they are in getting dance partners.

With cheap automobiles to be built now for $250, many thrifty people will conclude they can't afford not to borrow the money and have one.

QUOTING PRESIDENT WILSON.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer)
For more than four months quoting President Wilson has been a favorite German pastime. Whenever it appears that Germany is to be made to pay for her evil deeds of the recent or remote past, a number of unscrupulous traitors and a great many editors take to making impassioned references to "the 14 points." It seems to be roughly assumed that the 14 points guarantee Germany against any punishment more severe than a figurative slap on the wrist. The latest outbreak of mock righteousness is over the announcement that the city of Dantzig is to be given to Poland.

The Lokal Anzeiger, a Berlin paper of considerable repute, declares that Germany would be justified in refusing to sign any peace treaty which stipulated the cession of Dantzig, and asserts that President Wilson's program would warrant the refusal.

If the editor had taken the trouble to read the 14 points carefully he would have noted that one of the specific stipulations is that Poland shall have access to the sea. The only possible Polish window on the Baltic is Dantzig, capital of the present German province of West Prussia, which, despite more than a century of Teuton propaganda and oppression, retains its predominantly Polish aspect. Most of West Prussia, in fulfillment of the principle of self-determination, be given to Poland. To fulfill President Wilson's stipulation of a Polish seaport, Dantzig must go to Poland along with the rest of the province, despite the German claim that the city itself shows a German majority.

The country up to the very suburbs of Dantzig is clearly Polish, and Dantzig itself is Polish on historical and geographical grounds. Giving Dantzig to Poland will do no violence to President Wilson's principles. Failure to give Dantzig to Poland would set at naught one of the most specifically expressed points of Mr. Wilson's program.

If the German orators and editors are to continue their practice of quoting the American president whenever they are most inclined to squeal, it would be well for them to have some clear idea of just what the American president has said. It would be especially profitable for them to note where he has been most specific. There is nothing ambiguous or provisional in the statement that Poland, the great new Poland that is to stand guard between Germany and Russia, must have access to the sea.

SOM EMORE ABOUT THAT "ISSUE."

"Internationalism gives the G. O. P. greatest issue since 1860," howls a headline emblazoned across the front page of the New York Sun. This is the introduction to an article by the Sun's Washington correspondent who, in opening his discussion, says:
President Wilson is driving his own party to the championship of that particular issue which is called internationalism, and is handing to the Republican party the most majestic issue it has had since the Civil War.

Discussing the individual views of senators the correspondent says:
Mr. Borah feels that the great issue of the coming presidential campaign will be Americanism vs. internationalism. He believes that the battle cry of the Republican party from now on should be: "Save the republic." He believes, as do Senators New, Lodge and others, that he earnestly discusses the crisis, that the country is today facing a danger worse than war, a crisis ominous than existed in 1860.

It will be unfortunate for the Republican party, indeed, of its overzealous friends and assumed spokesmen succeed in establishing the principle of a league of nations—damn it with panic breeding as they will—as "the most majestic issue it has had since the Civil War," with the Democratic party up in favor and the Republican party against.

How many times must it be explained to the tiny creatures of partisanship that this is a question too big for party and that there may be a large number of people of opposite political faith in the United States, who doing their own thinking, will vote out their convictions on the league of nations propositions?

In the first place we do not believe all that the Sun correspondent has said with reference to the views of senators. We have direct information that Senator Lodge, despite the impression he has given to the contrary, is in favor of the league principle, and that only a negligible minority of senators is opposed to that principle. The Paris document, though inadequate more for its omission of the fact that the league is not accepted by the great majority of Republican senators as drawing an issue for the Republican party between nationalism and internationalism.

Some of the friends of the Republican party, however, it is an incredible amount of harm by plastering it with a label of opposition to an international agreement which, in view of the history of the past five years, including the development of the implements of death and destruction, has become not an idealist's dream, but a practical necessity.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS.

(Ohio State Journal)
The war savings stamp campaign is on as much as ever. The nation is still bearing its war burden, and will till boys come home and settle down. But war savings stamps not only help the government; they help oneself. Millions of dollars have been saved by the people who are not rich and they have these savings for rainy days and for such minor investments as they may choose to make. These stamps not only help to save the nation, but they serve to build up those traits of character which are calculated to make a stronger citizenship. These war stamps are certainly the finest resource for resource ever devised, for by strengthening one's personal savings they give to all a hand in the national defense. Own a stamp, even if it is only a 25-cent one.

PERSONAL AND PARTISAN

(New York Times)
Mr. Tatt has fully and satisfactorily disposed of the objections raised against the proposed national constitution by the Republican writers. That in itself will not compel them to change their plan. Mr. Lodge and Mr. Knox will now feel that it is necessary to prepare up new objections or to retract their speeches. The president destroyed their argument, he may have exposed it, but he did not destroy the motive that prompts their opposition.
Their dissatisfaction is not with the league of nations plan, but with its chief promoter. They are like guests at a banquet who decline to partake of what is prepared before them. They are not content with the best of the best, but have been prepared with great care and skill. That makes no difference. They dislike the cook and will persist in rejecting the products of his art, however tempting they may be to the appetite of the unimpaired. They are hungry, but they will not be helped to a slice of his roast.
To a good old-fashioned Republican like Henry Cabot Lodge, a Democrat in the White House is evidence that something has gone woefully wrong in the processes of nature. He resents the triumph of the Democratic party as an intolerable affront put upon the divinely chosen guardians of the national destiny by a depraved electorate. If the drift of the league constitution had been put forth and advocated by President McKinley or President Roosevelt, these Republicans would have exhausted the language of adulation in praising it. In opposing the league, the members of the league plan, these thirty-nine senators set themselves against the conclusion of peace. They prolonged the state of war, and the dangerous conditions growing out of the present unsettledment. The American people want the war ended; they want peace; they want the league of nations.

CREDIT FIRST, CRITICISM NEXT.

(Cincinnati Enquirer)
There's something refreshing and invigorating in the protest of Colonel Henry M. Waite against the constant criticism of the army, the navy and the auxiliary organizations of helpful civilians. It should be who are the rallying point of those who are becoming irritated by the conduct of the attacks. The returned officer, who was the city manager of Dayton, Ohio, before he volunteered and therefore learned the oft injustices of the public in criticizing administrative affairs, said as a general answer to those who were nagging:
"Yes, the U. S. C. A. made mistakes, the Red Cross made mistakes and the army made mistakes, but for God's sake, look at what they did!"

This does not mean that incompetency should be condoned or gross blundering or deliberate mischief glossed over, but it does mean that credit for performance should be given plentifully before the debit side of the ledger is turned to.

THE BOY SCOUTS

The regular weekly meeting of Troop 6 of the Boy Scouts in Newark was called to order by Scoutmaster Franklin Monday evening, Scout Dan Wilson, official bugler, blew assembly after which the scout oath was repeated as follows:

"On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and to my Country; to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight."

The Scoutmaster then called on different members to repeat parts of the Scout Law so as to keep it fresh in the minds of all.

Some time ago, the Kinder Cabin, located in the Newark, and which was used by the Scouts as a camp ground last season, was badly damaged by a number of boys reported to be members of Troop 6. Happily it was proven that these boys were not Scouts, having been dropped from the Scout movement some time ago. However, Troop 6 has taken upon itself the responsibility of repairing the cabin in good condition again. Two of the Scouts reported that they had visited the Kinder Cabin recently and found it in such bad shape that they were not able to do very much toward fixing it up again last time. It is hoped, however, that in a few weeks it will be just as good as new.

All Scouts who wish to go on a hike tomorrow, are requested to be in front of the Episcopal church at 12 o'clock in the afternoon. This hike will be in charge of the Assistant Scoutmaster, and a thorough inspection of Kinder Cabin will be made at the end of the hike.

Scout James Scott, passed the camp test, which consists of naming the 16 principal points of the compass, and is, therefore, one step nearer to being a second class Scout.

The following Scouts were appointed as a hike committee to provide for the week's hike period at the next meeting: William A. Kew, chairman; John Upham, James Scott, Clarence Zins, and Fredrick Swigale.

All who are interested in the boys' hike?

FUR WILL FLY IN KILONIS CONTEST

Bowser Will Meet Greek Demon Thursday at Auditorium—Rough Match In Prospect.

Paul Bowser and John Kilonis have been matched to wrestle to a finish in this city Thursday evening. It undoubtedly will attract a big crowd as the Bowser-Montou match two weeks ago when every seat was sold and scores of people were turned away.

It is not generally known but Bowser has been made an excellent offer to locate in Columbus. He is receiving the most generous offer from the sport writers all over the country, and one of them touts him as the foremost middleweight champion in the United States. There are men with a reputation in the wrestling game who state that no man living at Bowser's height can pin his shoulders to the mat twice out of three times and who will back their opinion with their money.

On the stage of the Chamber of Commerce auditorium several weeks ago at Columbus, a challenge was issued that no man living at Bowser's weight could throw him twice in three falls, and that $1,000 had been posted to cover the defy. Up to date it has not been covered and it is safe to say it never will. There are those who believe that just as good a wrestler as Bowser can be found to win a decision over him. Those men who believe so are willing to back their opinion with their money.

Bowser has been winning every match and at Zanesville a few nights ago where he wrestled, more than 300 people were turned away from the theater. He has been packing them in and all have marveled at his feat. Bowser was never in better condition in his life. His match next Thursday will draw people from all over Licking county.

Those who have never seen Bowser and Kilonis in action will have the treat of their lives when the two gladiators clash. It will be better than any show for the big Greek losses his head whenever he meets the champ and he starts to bite, scratch, claw, box and fight. There are those familiar with the game who would rather see the two men in action than any other two men in the country. It will be a great night for the fans and one in which lively action will predominate from the tap of the gong.

Leslie Fishbaugh is on the bill and will meet a tough boy of his own weight and Matty Tauda will endeavor to throw Bill Gallagher at 145 pounds. The Jap is a tough little customer and he will give the Newark favorite the battle of his career.

The tournament is going to be well worth while and when the seats go on sale next week there will be a big demand for tickets. Stage seats can be secured at the Bowser gym in North Fourth street.

THE MARKETS

Wall Street.
New York, March 15.—Bullish enthusiasm attended the week-end session on the stock exchange, although profit taking was again a deterrent, some of the more prominent leaders, after early gains. Shipings dominated the list for a time, American International rising 3 1/2 points. Motors and their subsidiaries, Crucible Steel, Colorado Fuel and Harvester were among the strongest industrials, but C. S. Steel failed to throw off its recent heaviness and rails were dull and irregular. Distilling shares, California Packing, Jewell Tea and May Department stores represented the less distinctive issues at gains of 2 to almost 5 points. The closing was strong. Sales approximately 500,000 shares. Bonds were steady.

The final session of the week on the stock exchange began with a further demonstration of strength in the various specialties which featured the very heavy trading. Industrial Alcohol, Distiller, Martin preferred, American International, General Motors, Maxwell Motors, U. S. Rubber, Crucible Steel, Colorado Fuel, Harvester, Texas company, California Packing and Central Leather registered gains of 1 to 3 points in the first half hour's extension. The market then rallied a fraction from its slight setback and rails were featured, except for the renewed heaviness of St. Paul.

Pittsburgh Live Stock.
Pittsburgh, March 15.—Hogs: receipts 1200, lower. Heavies and heavy yorkers, 20.00; light yorkers, 18.50@18.50; pigs, 17.50@18.00.

Sheep and lambs: receipts 500; steady. Top sheep, 15.00; top lambs, 20; calves: receipts 35; steady. Top, 19.00.

Chicago Grain Review.
Chicago, March 15.—Prospects of a maximum harvest being placed on the values here had only a temporary bearish effect today on the corn market. Opening prices which varied from unchanged figures to 1 1/4 lower, with May 1 3/4 1/2 to 1 3/8 1/2 and July 1 3/8 1/4 to 1 3/8 1/2, were followed by a moderate general decline and the upturns that, in some cases, reached above yesterday's finish.

Oats paralleled the action of corn. After opening 1 1/8 to 5 1/8 down, with May, 61 3/4 to 61 7/8, the market sagged a little further and then recovered.

Provisions were governed by the same influence as grain. Selling was of a scattering sort.

Chicago Produce.
Chicago, March 15.—Butter: higher; creamery, 52@53.

Eggs: 200 lbs. receipts 13,198 cases. Firsts, 38 3/4@39; ordinary firsts, 38 @38 1/2; at mark, cases included, 38 @38 3/4.

Potatoes: unsettled; receipts 55 cars; Wisconsin and Michigan, 1.55@1.57; Minnesota, 1.53@1.60.

Onions: alive, lower; springs, 31c; fowls, 30c.

Chicago Live Stock.
Chicago, March 15.—(C. S. Bureau of Markets.)—Hogs receipts 7,000; market very uneven average about steady with yesterday's general trade. Bulk of sale, 19.10@19.40; heavy weight, 19.50@19.60; medium weight, 19.20@19.40; light weight, 18.60@19.20; lights, 17.25@18.50; sows, 17.25@18.75; pigs, 16.50@17.10.

Cattle: receipts 15,000; compared with a week ago, beef steers and she stock mostly 25c lower, beef steers strong. Calves: steady to 25c lower.

Sheep: receipts 1,000; compared with a week ago, good to choice fat sheep and lambs, 50 to 75c higher; other killing classes mostly 25c higher; feeders strong.

Cleveland Produce.
Cleveland, March 15.—Produce market unchanged.

Toledo Grain Closing.
Toledo, March 15.—Corn 1.46.

DR. EDWIN MILLER IS GIVEN CAPTAIN'S RANK

Dr. Edwin Miller, Newark dentist, who has been in the army service for more than a year, has been promoted from the rank of first lieutenant to captain, according to a letter received by his wife. He is now located at Bordeaux, France, since December, 1918. Dr. Miller's letter stated that he is in the best of health. He had no information as to when he would be returned to the United States.

Ancient Bee Industry.
Some time back in the prehistoric era and probably antedating the time when mankind had tamed the wild bees and organized them in the business of producing "strictly fresh laid eggs," human kind had annexed the bee, or, anyhow, had made a business of robbing the wild bees. Bee farming is no new thing under the sun, but the bees were never before so carefully bred and cross-bred nor so intelligently assisted in the honey-making game as at present.

SANDS FIGHTS WITH 4TH DIVISION

Newark Boy Gets Into Marney Drive In July and In Vesle and St. Mihiel Fight.

American troops were always curious to find out what was in the trenches opposite and usually found out, according to the following letter written from Eller, Germany, February 4, by Homer Sands to The Newark Advocate, now with the army of occupation in Germany. His letter says:

"I will take you from the time I boarded the transport Magantic. The trip over was very pleasant and lasted for 13 days, arriving in Liverpool, England, on May 18. Left Liverpool on the 17th and arrived in the wonderful forts of Dover. From Dover we went to Calais, France, here we were given a grand reception. About 9:30 p. m. the boche came over in his airplane and bombed the town of Calais. Although the bombs did not hit in our camp they landed all around us and wrecked one of the hospitals, killing and wounding about 50 soldiers and nurses. This was our first experience in the world-war and we then saw what the Germans had been doing for the previous four years.

"We stayed in Calais two days and then left for our training area. We trained until the Germans threatened to take Paris. After their drive in May we were assigned to the 4th division and taken away and rushed to a small town called Louarre, about 45 kilometers from Paris. Here we stayed in reserve until the threatening drive the Germans started on July 15.

"The call I had long waited for came on the night of July 17. At last I was going to get a crack at the Germans and we were all happy because we knew we were going to help to win the glorious victory the allies have achieved. The night was very stormy and it thundered and lightened for two hours. Our march to the front was a long and tiresome one, as we were carrying full field equipment. We took our positions near a town called Vimy, on the left of Chestau-Thierry. Here we lay in a wheatfield the rest of the night and could hear the machine-gun bullets whizzing over our heads at all times. We were compelled to lie flat on the ground, to sit up it meant sure death. On the morning of July 18 we went over the top and started the Germans on their bike to Berlin. We were relieved from the front lines July 22. On August 2 we again took up the front line and drove the Germans to the Vesle river, here we saw hard fighting and on the 15th after 27 days of hard fighting and successful fighting we were relieved to be sent to another sector.

"We then took up the training that we had not finished and were put in shape for the St. Mihiel drive. "September 5 we were in the trenches, like all other Americans we

STREET FIGHTING CONTINUES INTERMITTENTLY IN BERLIN

Sparticides lined up in Berlin street to fight government troops, above, and government artillery in action against Reds on Belle-Alliance-Platz in Berlin.

Pope Benedict has addressed an appeal to the world powers emphasizing the urgency, as he sees it, of concluding an early peace with Germany. He fears the spread of Bolshevism and the ultimate establishment of a Bolshevik state. Bolshevik activities continue in Germany and Russia. Street fighting is going on at intervals in the German capital.

Government troops, however, are prepared to handle the situation, artillery equipment having been furnished the troops. The photos, taken recently, show both sides in this street warfare in action.

wanted to know what was in the trenches opposite us. So on September 11 the boys came back from their leave and joined their companies. At 11 we found that the armistice had been signed so then we turned away from the road we were on and went to a town named Andilly and stayed there until November 20. While there we received new clothes and equipment and got ready for our bike into Germany. We started November 20 and on the 22nd we were in Germany in a town named Jarry. That was and our destination, so we continued until December 10 when we arrived in Eller where we are now staying, about 40 kilometers from Jarry, situated on the Mosel river.

EXTRA LONG WEAR FROM SHOES

T. D. Collins of Ocala, Hawaii, makes a remarkable statement which demonstrates the money-saving durability of Neolin Soles.

He writes, "After wearing a pair of Neolin-soled shoes off and on for thirty-three months, I wore them on a trip to the volcano of Kilauea and walked around the crater over hot lava six times and still the soles showed only slight signs of wear."

This experience is not accidental. It results from the scientific process by which Neolin Soles are made to be exactly what soles should be—comfortable, waterproof and exceedingly economical because of the long wear they give.

Get them on new shoes for all members of the family and have them put on worn shoes. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite—colic of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.
